Let's revisit our original Tabernacle questions:

Which part of the Tabernacle do you resonate with the most? Why?

Which part of the Tabernacle do you struggle with the most? Why?

The tabernacle outlines our journey of drawing near to God. Where do you sometimes get off course or stuck?

How will you get traction again?

Think of a friend God has put on your heart or in your life lately...

Where are they on this graphic? How will you encourage them?

If you could get to a place where listening to God was consistent in your life, what might he say to you right now?

What you be afraid he would say?

What would you hope he would say?

Faith is trusting what God says. Read James 4:8a

Will you choose to trust this promise?

What will change in your life today?

Would it be worth it?

What is a first step for you to approach God?
