

Evangelism

W “First Base” in living on mission is establishing a Witness. This is about how God has reconciled you to himself through Jesus Christ. Witness to everyone. The consistency between your spoken witness and living witness demonstrate requisite authenticity.

G “Second Base” in living on mission is sharing the Gospel. This is about the reconciliation offered to humanity through the atonement of Jesus Christ. Of those you witness to, some will be open and ready to hear the gospel. This is the bridge between what God has done in your life and what He desires to do in others’ lives.

A “Third Base” in living on mission is Apologetics. Life’s circumstances carve deep ravines and construct towering walls in the heart and mind that can hinder a person from accepting the truth of the Gospel. The heart cannot believe what the mind cannot understand, and so we give a defense for the hope that is in us.

D “Home Plate” in living on mission is Discipleship. Those who listen to our witness, surrender to the Gospel, and accept the tenants of the faith, must walk in the tension of perfecting Christ’s holiness within. We journey with them as together we discover how to live life reconciled to God.

Evangelism

W “First Base” in living on mission is establishing a Witness. This is about how God has reconciled you to himself through Jesus Christ. Witness to everyone. The consistency between your spoken witness and living witness demonstrate requisite authenticity.

G “Second Base” in living on mission is sharing the Gospel. This is about the reconciliation offered to humanity through the atonement of Jesus Christ. Of those you witness to, some will be open and ready to hear the gospel. This is the bridge between what God has done in your life and what He desires to do in others’ lives.

A “Third Base” in living on mission is Apologetics. Life’s circumstances carve deep ravines and construct towering walls in the heart and mind that can hinder a person from accepting the truth of the Gospel. The heart cannot believe what the mind cannot understand, and so we give a defense for the hope that is in us.

D “Home Plate” in living on mission is Discipleship. Those who listen to our witness, surrender to the Gospel, and accept the tenants of the faith, must walk in the tension of perfecting Christ’s holiness within. We journey with them as together we discover how to live life reconciled to God.

To continue the conversation, email
Pastor Tim: t.walker@fbcrichland.net

To continue the conversation, email
Pastor Tim: t.walker@fbcrichland.net

Evangelism

W “First Base” in living on mission is establishing a Witness. This is about how God has reconciled you to himself through Jesus Christ. Witness to everyone. The consistency between your spoken witness and living witness demonstrate requisite authenticity.

G “Second Base” in living on mission is sharing the Gospel. This is about the reconciliation offered to humanity through the atonement of Jesus Christ. Of those you witness to, some will be open and ready to hear the gospel. This is the bridge between what God has done in your life and what He desires to do in others’ lives.

A “Third Base” in living on mission is Apologetics. Life’s circumstances carve deep ravines and construct towering walls in the heart and mind that can hinder a person from accepting the truth of the Gospel. The heart cannot believe what the mind cannot understand, and so we give a defense for the hope that is in us.

D “Home Plate” in living on mission is Discipleship. Those who listen to our witness, surrender to the Gospel, and accept the tenants of the faith, must walk in the tension of perfecting Christ’s holiness within. We journey with them as together we discover how to live life reconciled to God.

To continue the conversation, email
Pastor Tim: t.walker@fbcrichland.net

