& Now?

Romans 12:1-2

For as much as this epistle is the principal and most excellent part of the New Testament, and most pure Euangelion, that is to say glad tidings and that we call gospel, and also a light and a way in unto the whole scripture, I think it meet that every Christian man not only know it by rote and without the book, but also exercise himself therein evermore continually, as with the daily bread of the soul. No man verily can read it too oft or study it too well...

Wherefore let every man without exception exercise himself therein diligently, and record it night and day continually, until he be full acquainted therewith."

Romans 12:1-2

-William Tyndale 1534
